NEGRO COMPOSITION FOR REVIVALS AND CONGREGATIONAL SINGING

FOREWORD

HILE it is very true that our ancestors were unenlightened and illiterate, it is very significant that they were able to compose music of a nature that is considered by artists and scientists of fundamental historic value, as it indicates a temperament and an appreciation of harmony, that has gone a long way towards explaining their adaptability and survival under adverse circumstances in Caucasian civilization.

It is therefore of serious concern to every individual of Negro antecedents to see that these musical compositions of the faithful and humble old bondsmen and bondswomen—who have now, almost all passed on into the "Great Beyond" and are not much more than a pathetic memory—are preserved.

Accordingly we have gathered and selected, at the cost of considerable time, effort and expense, the more popular numbers of these religious spirituals for the express purpose of preserving such excellent and classic manifestations of their struggles, attainments and aspirations, their joys and their sorrows.

The regular selling price of this book is 35 cents, but we will send a copy free to any one who will send us the names and addresses of ten friends and ten cents in stamps or coin. These addresses must be complete in every detail—giving name, street number, town and state. In smaller towns where there are no street numbers, give R.F.D. and box number. General Delivery addresses can not be accepted.

High-Brown Soap (Savon de Luxe)

YOU may have heard that to retain a delicate, fair skin you must abstain from the use of soap. But how discouraged you have been if you have ever tried that uncleanly method. Wash as often as you like, powder and rouge if necessary, but use only the purest of soap.

Strong alkalies that dry out the glands, clog the pores and coarsen the tissues will ruin the skin, irritating it and causing wrinkles. Our High-Brown Savon De Luxe represents the acme of perfection in scientific soap making. It is especially made for sensitive skins and has bleaching properties.

The thick yet delicate lather cleanses the skin and pores thoroughly. It instantly dissolves in clear water so that after the rinsing the skin is left perfectly free from all sediment and impurities. High-Brown Savon De Luxe is daintily and fragrantly perfumed. Two cakes to a box.

Price 25 cents per cake.

High-Brown Pressing Oil.

WHAT is the first thing a lady thinks about when she wonders if she is looking just right? Her hair, of course! Watch her as she enters a ball room, reception or the like, and what does she do?

Instinctively her hand goes to her hair to arrange her coiffure and if there is a glass near—a touch here or there before she is ready.

Every woman knows what a vitally important part the hair plays in good looks.

It is therefore necessary and essential that one use every precaution in selecting the proper preparation with which to dress one's hair.

High-Brown Pressing Oil is an excellent preparation; made especially to soften, press and oil the strands of the hair, immediately after the hair has been washed and dried. With its beneficial ingredients, High-Brown Pressing Oil assists Nature in giving your hair a bright, fresh looking, live appearance and your hair is then prepared to be dressed in any of the prevailing fashions.

High-Brown Tooth Paste

BEAUTIFUL teeth are a charm obtainable by every woman, and are by no means the least of feminine attractions, even though one's teeth may not be regular or perfectly formed, they still may be made to lend the greatest charm. Who does not delight in a smile that reveals milky white teeth or that fairly glisten with cleanliness? Strong, healthy, good looking teeth are the result of cleanliness.

High-Brown Tooth Paste is a superior dentifrice, with an alkaline reaction. It whitens the teeth, purifies the breath, and counteracts the causes of decay; makes a rich, antiseptic foam that sweetens the breath and leaves a refreshing, pleasing taste in the mouth. It is put up in a collapsible tube with a ribbon flow, and your dentist will tell you there is nothing better obtainable.

Price 25 cents.
